

Finding the main idea

Rabbits and Guinea Pigs

Rabbits and guinea pigs are both popular pets. However, they have some differences. Rabbits are known for their long ears and hopping behavior, while guinea pigs have shorter ears and walk on all fours. Rabbits enjoy eating fresh vegetables and hay, while guinea pigs prefer pellets and fruits. Despite their differences, both animals make adorable and lovable pets for families.

The main idea of the story is:

- A. Rabbits and guinea pigs are both popular pets.
- B. Rabbits have long ears and hop around.
- C. Guinea pigs prefer pellets and fruits as food.
- D. Both animals make adorable pets for families.

Main Idea:

A. Rabbits and guinea pigs are both popular pets.

The main idea is that the passage talks about rabbits and guinea pigs being popular pets, meaning many people like to have them as companions at home.

