

Each sentence below contains one spelling mistake.

Identify the misspelled word and write the correct spelling in the box.

1. The ecosystem in the forest is home to many species of plants and animals.

Correct spelling: _____

2. The independence of the country was celebrated with a grand parade.

Correct spelling: _____

3. The herbivore animals in the jungle feed primarily on plants.

Correct spelling: _____

4. The train had an impressive locomotive engine.

Correct spelling: _____

5. She attended a lecture on modern art at the museum.

Correct spelling: _____

6. The desert was dotted with cactuses as far as the eye could see.

Correct spelling: _____

7. The population of the city has been steadily increasing.

Correct spelling: _____

8. The vertebrate species were displayed at the natural history museum.

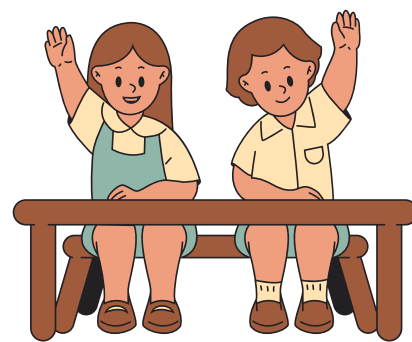

Correct spelling: _____

9. He felt queasy after the long boat ride on rough waters.

Correct spelling: _____

10. The restaurant served a variety of zucchini dishes.

Correct spelling: _____

Circle the word that has the same meaning

1. Ecosystem
2. Independence
3. Herbivore
4. Locomotive
5. Lecture
6. Cactus
7. Population
8. Vertebrate
9. Queasy
10. Zucchini

